

Local News / Miami-Dade News

Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen announces support of transgender rights in new PSA

Sun Sentinel staff

MAY 16, 2016, 10:14 AM

The South Florida LGBT activist organization SAVE today is unveiling a public service announcement in which veteran congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen announces her support in protecting the rights of transgender people, according to the organization's website.

When the PSA is unveiled, Ros-Lehtinen (R-Miami) will appear at the downtown campus of Miami-Dade College with her husband, Dexter Lehtinen, formerly South Florida's top federal prosecutor and the couple's son, Rodrigo Heng-Lehtinen, a transgender man.

The Spanish-language PSA is called Family is Everything and in it Ros Lehtinen acknowledges that her son is transgender and "We loved him as Amanda and now as Rodrigo," according to WTVJ-Ch. 6.

This story will be updated. Check back for more information.

Copyright © 2016, Sun Sentinel