The Miami Book Fair on Monday announced some of the major authors on their way to the “Evenings With” sessions at the annual event Nov. 11-18 at Miami-Dade College, including novelists Liane Moriarty, Anna Quindlen and Tayari Jones; Vanity Fair magazine icon Tina Brown; Barack Obama's presidential photographer Pete Souza; and Pulitzer Prize winner Lawrence Wright.

Also scheduled during the fair are historian Doris Kearns Goodwin, NPR’s Peter Sagal and Miami humorist Dave Barry.

Tickets for most of these author events cost $20, though some may require the purchase of the author’s book. For more information, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

Appearing on Nov. 11, Moriarty is the author of best-selling novels “Truly Madly Guilty,” “The Husband’s Secret” and “Big Little Lies,” which was turned into an HBO series starring Reese Witherspoon, Nicole Kidman and Shailene Woodley. Her next book, “Nine Perfect Strangers,” is due to be published Nov. 6.

Quindlen, who won the Pulitzer Prize while a columnist at The New York Times, will be at the fair on Nov. 12 to read and discuss her ninth novel “Alternate Side,” a story about marriage, motherhood, money and friendship on New York’s Upper West Side.
